Of Democrats Who Have Been Elected to Congress.

THE MAJORITY MAY BE 150,

While All the Republican Leaders Are Left at Home,

DIRTY JOE CANNON IS DEFEATED.

Bill McKinley Meets His Warwick.

WHOLE STATES COME INTO COLUMN,

And the Sound of Democratic Victory Becomes Monotonous.

Hurrah for democracy! The victory of the democratic party is

The republican house of representatives is practically wiped out of existence. Of all the leaders Tom Reed and Cabot Lodge remain. McKinley, of Ohio, is defeated, and so is "Vulgar" Joe Cannon, of Illinois, and Rowell and Mason, of the

The New York legislature is democratic on joint ballot by two majority. This means a democratic successor to Senator Evarts. She also elects twenty-one, out of thirty-four, democratic congressmen, a gain

Pattison, democrat, carries Pennsylvania by 10,000 majority, and the democrats gain three congressmen. The defeat of "Billy" Mason, "Vulgar" e Cannon and Jonathan Rowell, of ois, the three most bitterly partisan reblicans in the house, is as good news as e defeat of McKinley in Ohio.

Russell's majority for governor of Massausetts is 10,000, and the Bay State sends ix democratic congressmen, a gain of four. The delegation now stands six democrats and six republicans.

The news from Kansas is encouraging. R is great. The democrats get one congressman, the republicans get one, and the lance or people's ticket gets five. An nti-Ingalls legislature is elected. The peole's ticket wins it by a good majority, ich means defeat for Senator Ingalls, An allianceman will succeed him.

The democrats get everything in New Hampshire-both congressmen, the legislaare and will elect the governor. It mean democratic successor to Senator Blair. In Illinois the democrats get twelve out the twenty congressmen, a gain of five. And it is the same way in nearly all the ther states. Indeed, it is a clean sweep

INGTON, November 5.-[Special.]locrats have just begun to realize itude of their victory, and the resimoralized condition tonight. The government employes no longer regard the situation with complacency, and the general and sweeping condemnation of the party in power is acknowledged to mean democratic ascendency leading to the presidency in 1892.

THE GAINS MADE. The possible gain of four democratic United States senators, and the placing of two-thirds of the states of the union under the administration of democratic governors, is a result that even the most sanguine rainbow chasers did not dream of. With the New York legislature controlled on joint ballot by the democrats, as the returns now indicate, the problem of choosing a democratic presidential candidate will be very much simplified, and the party will enter the campaign united and with the prestige of the most complete and farreaching victory over known to American

The crushing defeat of Quay in Pennsylvania, Platt in New York, the political earthquake in New England, and the general upheaval in the western States, completely unhorse the practical leaders of the republican party. The sentiment of the younger element of the northern states is strongly toward the democratic party, and the republicans have already exhausted their recruiting sources.

THE REPUBLICAN OUTLOOK GLOOMY. The republican outlook is decidedly gloomy, and the thinking men of the party do not hesitate to admit the fact. Owing to the continued reports of democratic gains, it is impossible to estimate the democratic majority in the house with any degree of certainty. The best impression, tonight, is that it will be in the neighborhood of 70.

CRISP FOR SPEAKER. Very naturally, the speakership talk has commenced. The name most used in this connection is that of Charles Frederick Crisp; Bynum of Indiana, Springer of Illinois, McMillin of Tennessee, and Hatch of Missouri, are also mentioned. Judge Crisp's chances appear decidedly the best. He will start in with the New England delegation and the other eastern members almost solid for him. His alacrity in going to the assistance of Tammany, and his campaign speeches in the New England states, have given him a long start of his opponents, and tonight his election to the honored position is predicted on every side.

THE FORTUNES OF POLITICS. The fortunes of politics are, indeed, strange, and no man will be made to realize this fact more than Hon. William McKinley. Yesterday he was a republican idol. Tonight there are few members of his own party who have even a kind word for him. In addition to his unfortunate tariff measure, his selfishness in absorbing the bulk of the campaign funds in his district, in order that his personal interest might be advanced, has brought down on his own head the maledictions tof all the defeated republican congressmen and their friends. The whole resources of the republican campaign committee were placed at the disposal of McKinley and Cannon, and other republican candidates, who had much better prospects, were denied substancial assistance.

A SALTY OPINION. A prominent Ohioan put it in this man-party put in too much of its time [and money in an effort to make heroes, and too little attention was given to the election of congressmen. McKinley's selfishness has undoubtedly ended his political career."

McKinley's friends telegraphed here tonight that he was elected by about 100 majority. But the democrats claim Warwick is safe. Should McKinley be able to secure a certificate of election, a democratic house would make very short work of him in a contest. The evidence of corruption and debauchery in his district is so plain that the republican will hardly press for an investigation.

COLONEL CLARK ANNOUNCES. Colonel John B. Clark announced tonight that he would be a candidate for the clerkship of the house, his old position. and Congressman Yoeder, of Ohio, will be candidate for sergeant-at-arms. Ex-Speaker Keiffer is in town tonight, and in an interview he said he was a republican and a protectionist, but that if he believed some of the statements on the tariff, made by republican speakers in Ohio this year, he would have voted the democratic ticket.

MR. CLEVELAND IS HAPPY. The Democrats Congratulated Over Their Great Victory.

NEW YORK, November 5 .- To an Associated Press reporter, who asked for an expression of his opinion on the results of yesterday's elec tions, Ex-President Cleveland today said:

"I am delighted. I challenge the right of any man in the country to rejoice more heartily over the results of yesterday. My gratifi-cation is that of an American, proud of his fellow-countrymen, who, though led away for a time by party prejudices, and by blind conidence in cunning and selfish leaders, could not be deluded to their ruin. They have lemonstrated that in dealing with then not safe to calculate that they are stupid or heedless of the welfare of their countrymen.

TARIFF REFORM A NECESSITY. "The necessity of tariff reform, with its consequent reduction in the cost of living and the duty of the democratic party to advocate it, has been fully demonstrated by the action of the people yesterday. Their decision has been deliberately made. It is all the more significant because they voted upon their reason and judgment, and because they have proved that corruption is powerless as against their convictions. Of course, there is nothing for the democratic party to do but to push on, at all times and in all places, in the lines which they have laid down. That is, to insist upon a wise adjustment of the tariff to the reasonable needs of the government, as opposed to the plan which reaches favored class at the expense of the masses professions of the democratic party to the people redeemed. Our party has made an honest and earnest fight. It has planted it-self upon disinterested and unselfish devotion to the interest of the people. Its absolute unity and harmony upon the question of tanif reform show its quick recognition of true democratic principles and its enthusiasm in a cause which involves the popular welfare. Everywhere our people have done magnifi-cently, and the harvest they have gathered has been nobly earned." THE BALLOT REFORM LAW. In answer to an inquiry as to the view on operation of the ballot reform law, Mr. Cleve-

"I think there should be no more opposition to the principle of ballot reform. The ovi-dence of its usefulness and benefit to the people I regard as conclusive. In some matters of detail, the law in our state might, perhaps, be improved. It seems to me it would be well to obviate the necessity for so many separate ballots; but after all, even this or other ob-jections are not vitally important. The thing upon which every honest man should congratulate himself is that we have a law which protects our voters from corruption and intimidawhich once adopted will not be surrendered.

IT MAY BE 160. How the New York Sun Estimates the Democratic Majority.

New York, November 6 .-- To The Constitution: From every district in the

And in the west, As well as in the east,

Come most astounding democratic gains for congressmen. It now looks as though the democratic majority in the next house of representatives would be 150 to 160. CHESTER S. LORD, The Sun.

SENATOR FARWELL TALKS. He Tries to Account for the Causes of Chicago, November 5.—In the course of an interview today, Senator N. Farwell said: "If we have suffered defeat it is due to three things: The McKinley bill, Farmers' Alliance and School law. There is no use in ance and School law. There is no use in denying but that the people are wonderfully prejudiced against the McKinley bill, and many republicans seized upon the opportunity of showing their disapproval of this law. The McKinly bill is all right, but the people have to be educated up to it. That is all. This bill has been a great scarecrow for the democrats, and some republicans are weak kneed enough to believe in the scare. It will take time to get the people to fully understand this law, but when they do there will be a landslide the other way."

IT KNOCKS INGALLS OUT. The Farmers' Alliance Elect Five of the Kansas Congressmen.

Kansas City, Mo., November 5.—The republican candidate for governor is beaten. Six out of seven republican congressional candidates are defeated. Senator Ingalls reelection is a subject of grave doubt. That is the situation in Kansas. There was a land-slide, a regular avalanche. Eighty-two thousand republican majority was overwhelmed by resistless force and buried beneath its destructive weight. The Farmers' Alliance did it, and it was a genuine surprise. The Kansas delegation will stand: Republican, one; democrat, one; Farmers' Alliance, five. Another surprise lies in the possible defeat for re-election of Senator Ingalis. The Farmers' Alliance and democrats waged a bitter campaign against him, and a majority of the districts contained one of their candi dates against the republican candidate. The result is the certain election of ninety-five Farmers' Alliance and democratic legislators against thirty republicans.

Davis, independent and farmers alliance, will be elected to congress in the fifth district by about 5,000 plurality.

A special to The Kansas City Star, from Wichita, Kan., says: "In the seventh congressional district, Hollowell, republican, is defeated by Terry Simpson, democrat, by at least 2,500.

JOE CANNON DEFEATED.

He Concedes the Election of Bussey by 300 Majority.
CHICAGO, November 5.—The following personal message has been received here: Danville, Ill., November 5 .- Hon. William Henry Smith, Chicago: Bussey's majority is

J. C. CANNON. about 300. M'KINLEY DEFEATED.

The Republican State Committee Concede

It-The Congressional Delegation. COLUMBUS, O., November 5.—The republican state committee's unofficial returns received from seventy-five counties, and the balance estimated, claim that the republican plurality on the head of the state ticket will be between 14,000 and 15,000. The committee concedes the defeat of McKinley, republican, for congress, by about 200, and Foster by alout 75 or 100. Democratic candidates in other close congressional districts received ma-jorities ranging from 500 upward, with theexception of Cosgrove, at Cincinnati, who is defeated by Storer, republican, by 2,700.

One of the most remarkable democratic gins was in the eleventh district, where Pattion. democrat, was elected by 3,100, with a gair of 1,500 over last fall's vote. On returns received on private advices the democratic committee estimate that the republican plurality on the head of the ticket will be about 10,000, and think that it may fall below these figures. On unofficial figures they claim that McKinley is defeated by 318, and Foster by 300 or 400. Their estimate as to the numerical standing of the delegation is the same as that of the republican committee. Ex-Governor Foster concedes his defeit in the eighth district by a small majority. Hare, democrat, will have about 200 majority.

According to returns so far as received a 6 o'clock this evening, Ohio congressmen eleted are: First district, Bellamy Storer, republian: second district, John A. Caldwell, republian; third district, George W. Houck, democat; fourth district, M. K. Gantz, democrat; fith district, Ford C. Layton, democrat; sixth listrict, D. D. THE PENNSYLVANIA DELEGATION.

The Democrats Stake a Gain of Three Congressionen.

PHILADELPHIA, November 5.—The latest returns from the twenty-eight congressional districts of the state show the election of eighteen republicans and seven democrats. The present delegation from this state stands twenty republicans and seven democrats. The following are the congressmen elected, with the majorities received. Both confestants claim the sixteenth district, but the complete returns, which, however, are not official, give Elliott 100 majority:

First, Bingham, republican, 7,630.* second, O'Neill, republican, 6,527; third, McAleer, democrat, 3,236; fourth, Reyburn, republican, 12,334; fifth, Harmer, republican, 11,376; sixth, Robinson, republican, 3,650; seventh, Hallowell, democrat, 152; eighth, Mutchier, democrat, 6,613; ninth, Brunner, democrat, 9,39; tenth, Brosius, republican, 9,252; eleventh, Amerman, democrat, 374; twelfth, Shonk, republican, 1,422; thirteenth, Reilly, democrat, 1,500; fourteenth, Rife, republican, 3,650; fifteenth, Wright, republican, 1,800; sixteenth, Elliott, democrat, 3,150; twentieth, Reilly, democrat, 1,500; fourteenth, Rife, republican, 3,650; fifteenth, Wright, republican, 1,800; sixteenth, Elliott, democrat, 3,150; twentieth, Reilly, democrat, 3,150; twentieth, Reilly, republican, 7,000; twenty-first, Huff, republican, 1,500; twenty-second, Dalzell, republican, 7,600; twenty-first, Huff, republican, 1,500; twenty-second, Dalzell, republican, 7,600; twenty-first, Huff, republican, 1,500; twenty-second, Dalzell, republican, 7,600; twenty-first, Huff, republican, 1,600; twenty-second, Dalzell, republican, 7,600; twenty-second, Dalzell, republican, 1,600; twenty-second,

TWELVE OUT OF TWENTY. What the Democrats Elected in Illinois. CHICAGO, November 5 .- 8 p. m. - The full vote of Illinois, official, unofficial and esti-mated, indicate the election of Amberg, republican, for state treasurer, by a plurality of about 10,000 over Wilson, democrat. Edwards, republican, for superintendent public instruction, has a plurality of 8,000 over Raab, democrat. The following congressmen were elected from the state of Illinois: First district, Abner Taylor, republican; second, Lawrence McGann, democrat; third, Allen F. Duborrow, democrat; fourth, Walter C. Newberry, democrat; fifth, Albert J. Hopkins, republican; sixth, Robert R. Hitt, republican; seventh, Thomas J. Henderson republican: eighth, Charles A. Hill, repub lican; ninth, L. F. Payson, republican; tenth lican; ninth, L. F. Payson, republican; tenth, Philip Post, republican; eleventh, Benjamin T. Cable, democrat; twelfth, Scott Wike, democrat; fourteenth, Wm. M. Springer, democrat; fourteenth, Owen Scott, democrat; fitteenth, S. T. Bussey, democrat; sixteenth, George W. Fithian, democrat; seventeenth, Edward Lane, democrat; eighteenth, William S. Firman, democrat; nineteenth, James R. Williams, democrat; twentieth, George W. Smith, republican

MINNESOTA VERY CLOSE

As to the Governorship, but the Democrats MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., November 5.—The gubernatorial vote is very close in Minnesota. Twenty-three counties give Merriam, republican, 22,645; Wilson, democrat, 23,178, and Owen, alliance, 16,808. This does not include Hennepin county (Minneapolis), which gives (St. Paul), which gives 1,500 plurality for Wilson. The democrats are claiming the state. The alliance vote does not cut so great a figure in the counties to be heard from. Snider, republican, is defeated by Castle, democrat, for congress in the fourth district. O. M. Hall, democrat, defeats D. S. Hall, republican, in the third district, and Harries, democrat, wins over Dunnell in the first district. The fifth and second districts are doubtful. The democrats made nearly a clean sweep in the city, county and legislative tickets in this county. A SURPRISE IN WEST VIRGINIA.

The Democrats Carry a District They Did Not Expect To.

WHEELING, W. Va., November 5 .-- Indications up to 4 o'clock this afternoon are that the democratic tidal wave has taken West Virginia in its course, and that the party made a clean sweep. Hubbard, republican, for congress in the first district, has been defeated by fully 500 majority. The district is republican, but the apathy on the part of the party in Harrison and Marshall counties, two republican strongholds, did the business. Their showing strongholds, did the business. is a surprise to both parties. Smith, republican, for congress in the fourth district, still claims his election by a small majority. The state senate will probably be a tie, which will prevent the gerrymander of the state by the party having a majority in the legislature.

BRECKINRIDGE RE-ELECTED,

And Arkansas Sends Up a Solid Demo-cratic Delegation.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., November 5.—The Gazette, democrat, says: In Arkansas we have re-elected Cate in the first and Breckinridge in the second district, and restored the solid democratic delegation. The Register, republican, supported Feath-erston and Langley, union labor candidates in these districts, and claims re-election, but says: "While union labor voters seem to have returned to their first love and voted with the democrats, republicans rallied to our standardpearers with onthusiasm "Returns from these districts are coming in slowly. It is impossible to give any figures vet. The other three districts are largely

The Democrats Turn Down One Bepub

NASHVILLE, Tenn., November 5 .- Returns Irom yesterday's election are coming in very slowly, owing to general apathy and delayed mail and telegraphic facilities being overcrowded. John P. Buchanan, democrat, for governor, will have between 25,000 to 30,000 majority over L. T. Baxter, republican, and D. C. Kelley, prohibitionist. The legislature is two-thirds democratic in both houses, the democracy having made gains in the legisla-democracy having made gains in the legislature in East Tennessee. The congressional election will stand as follows: First district, R. R. Butler, independent republican, vice A. A. Taylor, republican, present incumbent; second, L. C. Houk, republican re-elected by a greatly decreased majority, probably 3,000; third, H. C. Snodgrass, democrat, vice H. Clay Evans, republican, present incumbent, by 700 majority; fourth, Benton McMillin, democrat, returned; fifth, James B. Richardson, democrat, returned; sixth, Joseph E. Washington, democrat, returned; seventh district, N. N. Cox, democrat, vice W. C. Whitthorne, democrat, defeated for renomination; eighth, B. A. Enloc, democrat, returned; inith, R. A. Pierce, democrat, returned; inith, Josiah Patterson, vice James Phelan, declined renomination. Majorities will be less than in former years owing to registration and poll-tax laws, the republican party being most affected.

Later returns from the first Tennessee congressional district show that Taylor (republican) incumbent, is re-elected over Butler (independent republican), by about 500 majority. The back counties were a complete surprise.

VEST WILL BE RETURNED. Missouri Sends a Solid Delegation to Con-

St. Louis, Mo., November 5.—Yesterday's election changed considerably the political complexion of the state of Missouri. The democrats send a full delegation to congress. With one exception they elect the state ticket, and will have the joint ballot in the legislature by a large majority. Returns are coming in slowly, and several days will elapse before the full and official vote can be given.

elapse before the full and official vote can be given.

The chairman of the democratic state committee said that Wade, republican, had undoubtedly defeated Ryan in the thirteenth district. He places Bland's, democrat, majority in the eleventh at 3,000; Wilson's, democrat, in the fourth at 1,500, and Byrns's in the tenth at 1,500. The democrats, he said, would have a majority of probably 74 on joint ballot in the legislature, and that they had elected their state ticket by 40,000. If the democrats have a majority on joint ballot in the legislature, and there is little doubt of that, it will assure the return of Senator Vest.

THEY HAVE RECONSIDERED.

Members of the Cabinet Say There Will Be No Extra Session. Washington, November 5.—Postmaster General Wanamaker today, in answer to an inquiry by a representative of the Associated Press, said that there was no probability of an extra session of Congress. While, he said, only the president could speak authoritatively upon the subject, he (Wanamaker) did not believe that the president had any thought of calling congress together before the regular session.

Two other members of the cabinet, who were unwilling to be quoted by name, said in response to similar inquiries, "There will be no extra session." DEMOCRATIC MASSACHUSETTS.

Russell, for Governor, Has Ten Thousand Majority.

Boston, November 5.—The Globe says:
"With only half a dozen towns to hear from in Massachusetts, Russell, democrat, is leading by over 10,000 votes. In the congressional districts the democrats re-elect O'Neil and elect Sherman Hoar in the fifth, Moses Stephens in the eighth, George F. Williams in the ninth, Fred S. Cooledge in the eleventh and John C. Crosby in the twelfth. The democrats will probably have the largest majority on record in the lower house, having not less than 100 members, against seventyeight last year, and from seventeen to nineteen senators, against eleven last year. Lieutenant Governor Hale gets through with 3,400 plurality, but Anditor Ladd is beaten by William T. Frefey by 6,555 plurality—the first democrat chosen to any of the lesser state offices since the first year of the republican administration." Majority.

WITH TRAILING COLORS The President Returns to Washington-

Other Gossip.

Washington, November 5.—President Harrison reached Washington about 6 o'clock this evening via the Pennsylvania railroad, on his return from Indianapolis. In accordance with directions from Chairman Cannon, James C. Courts, clerk of the house committee on appropriations, has notified members of the committee to meet at its room at the capitol on Thursday, the 20th instant, at 12 o'clock. This is in keeping with the naual custom of calling the day, the 20th instant, at 12 o'clock. This is in keeping with the usual custom of calling the committee together some day before the opening of the short session of congress so as to enable it to consider and facilitate the preparation of appropriation bills in advance of the regular meeting of congress. It is expected that advance sheets of the estimates of expenses of the government for the fiscal year 1881-92, will be received from the treasury department for the use of the committee by the time of the meeting.

A Closing Estimate NEW YORK, November 5 .- The Times to morrow will claim that the democrats will have 150 majority in the lower house of congress, and The Sun oven claims 160. Associated Press figures from the west give the majority at 129.

How New York Stands. How New York Stands.

New York, November 5.—The official returns from the congressional districts of the state will not be known for some days. These, however, will make no change in the results as reported by the Associated Press last night, unless Combs, democrat, proves to be elected in Brooklyn. New York's delegation in the fifty-second congress, should Combs be defeated, will consist of twenty democrats and fourteen remulticans. This instructory remulticans. fourteen republicans. This just reverses the position of the two parties as represented in the fifty-first congress, where republicans have twenty and the democrats fourteen.

The Returns from Montana.

Helena, Mont., November 5.—With all the counties heard from save two, and allowing the republicans the same majorities they had last year, Dixon, democrat, is elected to congress by 450 over Carter, republican. The democrats have elected four state senators, the republicans two, with two in doubt. The republican state committee says it will require the official count to decide the congressional result, though it still claims the state for Carter by 125. The same committee claims the election of five republican senators.

A Gain of Four in Iowa DES MOINES, Ia., November 5.—The following shows a gain of four congressmen for the democrats. Returns for one-third of the state show democratic gains sufficient, if continued, to wipe out the republican majority of two years ago and give a small democratic majority. The congressional election will stand as follows, it now appears: First, Steerly, democrat; second, Hayes, democrat; third, Henderson, republican; fourth, Butler, democrat;

Congratulating Mayor Grant.

NEW YORK, November 5.—Mayor Grant has been receiving, all morning, hundreds of con-gratulatory telegrams. Among them was one from Governor Hill, which read as follows: Accept my bearriest congratulations. Your vic-tory is triumph of loyal democracy and reward of successful administration.

THE CONSTITUTION and the whole south congratulate you on your victory. Please send us a message from the heart of national democracy. Patrick Walsh, of The Augusta Chronicle, Minister Lewis Cass, Mayor Danforth, of Albany, and hundreds of citizens in and out of the state, wired their congratulations.

ALBANY, N. Y., November 5.—Governor Hill has received over 100 telegrams from democratic leaders all over the country announcing democratic victories. Democratic leaders in three states, where the governor made campaign speeches, kept the governor well informed as to the results in these clocalities. Among the telegrams of general interest which he received from those states, and which gave him special satisfaction, was the following: following:
Calvin S. Brice telegraphed from Lima,
Ohio:

Onio: Congratulations. Ohio elects fourteen dei cratic congressmen, a gain of nine; McKinley of Foster both defeated.

And Delaware is All Right. And Delaware is All Right.

WILMINGTON, Del., November 5.—Complete returns from the whole state give Reynolds, democrat, for governor 445 majority, and Causey, democrat, for congress 514 majority. The city of Wilmington has gone 414 republican on the head of the ticket. The republicans elect their county ticket in Newcastle county by 326 majority. The next legislature will stand—senate, democrats 5, republicans 4; house, democrats 14, republicans 7. There is no United States senator to be elected. The prohibitionists, who had a full ticket in the field, polled about 150 votes in the whole state.

Gains in New Jersey. Gains in New Jersey.

TRENTON, N. J., November 5.—The congressional election in New Jersey resulted; First district, C. A. Bergen, republican, reelected; second district, J. Buchrnan, republican, re-elected; third district, J. A. Geissenhelmer, democrat, re-elected; fourth district, S. Fowler, democrat, re-elected; fifth district, C. A. Cadmus, democrat, gain; sixth district, Thomas Dunn English, democrat, probably gain; seventh district, E. F. Mac-Donald, democrat.

From New Hampshire.

Concord, N. H., November 5.—Returns from all but twenty towns in the state give Tuttle, republican, for governor, 39,151; Amsden, democrat, 38,427; Fletcher, prohibition, 1,223. In 1888, these twenty towns gave Goodell, republican, 2,825; Amsden, democrat, 2,775; Carr. prohibition, 68, In 299 cities and towns. Tuttle leads Amsden 704. There will be no choice, and the legislature will elect John M. Tyler, of Claremont. McKinney, democrat, carries the first congressional district by a good majority, and Daniell, democrat, the second by a very narrow margin.

Denyer, Col., November 5.—Returns so far received give the head of the republican ticket a plurality of 1,733.

At the democratic headquarters Chairman Arbuckle claims that they have elected nine of the ten members of the legislative ticket in this county. The republicans deny this, but admit the vote will be so close that the result cannot be determined until the official count has been made.

We Gain Four in Michigan.

We Gain Four in Michigan.

DETROIT, Michigan, November 5.—Up to the present hour, it o'clock p. m., the indications are that the democrats have elected the governor by 1,000 plurality, and the rest of the state ticket by a substantial vote.

In the congressional election the democrats have returned their caudidates in the following districts according to the present returns: The first, second, fifth, sixth, seventh and tenth. The congressional districts in Michigan at the last election with the exception of the first and seventh returned republican congressmen.

St. Paul, Minn., November 5 .- Full returns and carefully prepared estimates from forty-nine of seventy-nine counties in Minnesota give 1,672 plurality for Wilson, democratic, for governor. It seems probable that three of the nve congressmen are democrats, and that party also claims the fifth district, from which but scattering returns have been received.

PRESIDENT OF THE FARMERS' AL

ents Upon the Situation in Kansas, and Attributes the Change of Sentiment to the Farmers' Financial Distress.

A special dispatch to THE CONSTITUTION last evening, from Kanssas City, Ks., summed up the situation in that state as "Late returns from Kansas indicate that the people's movement has swept the state. Willets has, in all probability, been elected governor, over Robinson, democrat, and Humphrey, republican. There is every indication that a republican majority of 82,000 has been overcome, although Willets' plurality will be small.

"The returns received tonight are to the effect that the legislature will be anti-Ingalls. The democratic committee claims the election of eighty-five democrats and alliance members-more than enough, regardless of the hold-over senators, to defeat Ingalls.

"In the first district Moonlight, democrat, is elected, his plurality being about 2,500. He will be the second democrat to represent Kansas in congress. The only republican congressman elected is Funston, in the second district. The other districts, from present reports, will send alliancemen. In almost every office in the state the farmers have captured the offices."

The opinion of Colonel L. L. Polk, of Raleigh, N. C., president of the National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, who was in the city yesterday, was solicited upon the above dispatch.

"It is what might be termed a political volcano eruption, is it not?" he said with an expressive smile. "There are two principal reasons, which I think will embody the primary root of this great revulsion of feeling. The first is the fact that the people of Kansas are awakening to the importance and absolute necessity of a pro nounced position on the part of the people of the north against sectionalism. But it was left to John J. Ingalls, in a speech in the senate characterized by political malice and sectional party hate, to touch the match to the magazine, the explosion of which has culminated in the election just held. Several prominent republicans wrote me at the time severely condemning Ingalls's course. They had been his life-long friends, both in a personal and political sense, but they would never countenance political demagoguery as demonstrated in that speech.

'A meeting was finally held in March, at Topeka, at which a resolution was passed, repudiating any man who would support Ingalls in his course. The resolution was heartily indorsed by thousands, and led to the organization of the late movement, the result of which is announced in the dispatches of today.

"Sectional agitation has served the purposes of political demagogues in the north in holding the republican party together. When they saw the necessity of abandoning the bloody shirt racket, the 82,000 majority stampeded and swept the state. I speak from personal knowledge of the status of opinion in that section, having conversed with thousands this fall, and it was made clear to me that a determined effort was going to be made to throw sectionalism into oblivion. I trust that the patriotic men of the south will meet these right-minded people half way and co-operate heartily with them in establishing those amicable and mutually beneficial relations which cannot but make our glorious country stronger than it has ever been before.

"The second reason lies in the wofully depressed financial condition of the farmers of that state. They believe that the chief cause of all this despression is the discriminating legislation of the past twentyfive years, and they are going to work at the source of trouble-the national legisla-

"I am informed upon good authority that there are in the state of Kansas today 10,000 sober, industrious, hard-working farmers, who are unable even to pay the interest on the mortgages with which their land and property are covered. They are hopelessly in debt and can only get relief in financial reform. I was prepared to hear very good news from the election, but I must say that the result has surpassed all

C. Terry. The latter is a well-known manufacturer, and some months ago fitted up Ragio's barber shop in the Masonic Temple. Ragio did not pay promptly, and Terry attached his furniture and had it advertised for sale. While Terry was at breakfast this morning Ragio called at his residence and recovered. Terry was at breakfast this morning Ragio called at his residence and requested to see him. When Terry entered the parlor Ragio arose, and with a pistol in his hand began to speak of the attachment suit. Terry started to call his wife, when Ragio ordered him not to do so, threatening that if he did he would shoot him. He did call, however, and just as Mrs. Terry entered the room Ragio fired. The ball struck Mr. Terry in the upper part of the right breast and passed through his body. Ragio then left the house, and was soon afterwards arrested and jailed. It is thought tonight that Mr. Terry is fatally wounded.

The market today was an unsettled one. The opening was lower under weak reports from Liv-erpool and Manchester. The close at Liverpool and our lower spot market caused a quick decline, however, and there was a weak unsettled market to the close. The weather south was generally favorable to the work of picking cotton. Spot cotton was 1-16c lower and dull.

THEY FEAR GORDON

The county alliance of Harris has promuigated the following:

Whereas, General John B. Gordon, a distinguished Georgian, and a hero in the lost cause, did so mislead the alliance as to cause them, as well as the agricultural masses of the state, to believe him to be their strong ally in their struggle to extricate themselves from the iniquitous oppression caused by unjust class legislation, and in working out the great industrial reforms to which the alliance stands piedged. And,

Whereas, this confidence led us to make no issue against Governor Gordon in the primaries of the different counties of the state in the nomination of candinates to represent us in the next general assembly, and not knowing that he so bitterly opposed us until his recent Atlanta speech; therefore, be it

That it is important to the agricultural masses that we be represented in the next United States senate by men favorable to our masses, and as Governor Gordon has shown himself to be the friend of Wall street and not the farmers', and constituting, as the alliance does, a large majority of the democratic voters of this county, that we most respectfully demand that our legislators and senator vote for Smith, Norwood, Hines, or any other good man in sympathy with our cause, and should they vote for Governor Gordon in this race, in defiance of the expressed will off the democracy of this county, that we will never again support either of them for any office in the gift of the people.

He says: "I have great love and admiration for Governor John B. Gordon personally, and Ijyield to no man in reverence for him as a soldier and gentleman." Again he says: "We (the alliance) love General Gordon and were all anxious to honor and support that there is but a single objection to Governor Gordon for United States senator, and that is, that Senator Ellington writes about sacrificing the principles of the alliance. The principles of the alliance as published by them are true, they are immutable, they advocate "equal rights under the lam."

alliance as published by them are true, they are immutable, they advocate "equal rights under the law."

But the measure known as the "subtreasury" advocated by some of them and opposed by others, is the direct opposite of the principles announced by them. It is an advocacy of the evil principle of class legislation which has been fought by democrats, including the almost unanimous south from the beginning of the government until now.

It is the advocacy of inequality under the law, and the right of majorities to promote their own selfish ends in defiance of the great principles of equal rights under the law.

It is cometimes said that other classes of citizens are reaping the benefit of unequal and unjust laws by which farmers and other classes are robbed of their just earnings, and that it is but fair that farmers should share in such legislation! What! Because a corrupt party are in control of the government, and by unjust laws have enabled a class, not exceeding one-tenth of the population, to virtually rob the remaining nine-tenths of their earnings, shall we become partakers and endorsers of that great wrong? Shall southern men turn their backs upon the history and teachings of their patriots and statesmen? Shall democrats ignore their principles and violate the constitution of their country for any consideration whatever? Never! Let us rather stand in our places for the right, determined to conquer the wrong, without regard to numbers or circumstances, until equality of rights under the constitution shall be restored to our people.

The love and admiration expressed by Senator Ellington for Governor Gordon is common not only to alliancemen, but to the whole people of Georgia. He is a son of whom Georgia may well Readers of The Progress will remember that on the 13th of last September Mr. Jacob Garner was killed by Mr. Ranse Horton with a shotgun, at Walker's ginhouse, near Lindsey, in this county. From reports that were pul lished in The Progress, it appeared that Garner was shot for his undue familiarity with Horton's wife and his persistency in following the latter from place to place as they moved to get away from him. The direct cause of the shooting, it was reported, was that Garner had circulated damaging reports concerning Mrs. Horton, and Mr. Horton could no longer sub-

Run Over by a Train. Rome, Ga., November 5 .- [Special.]-Two men were run over on the Chattanooga, Rome and Columbus railroad just south of Summer ville today. The story of the tragedy seems to be just this: Passenger train No. 2, a regular schedule train, Engineer Chester and Con ductor Ford, struck a wagon which was crossing the road just south of Summerville. Two men in the wagon, A. F. Cloud and T. A. Van Pelt, were killed. The evidence goes to show that the men were intoxicated, both of them having that reputation, and they were warned to keep away from the track as the train was coming. The engineer blew his whistle at the proper time, but in vain. Witnesses agree in exonerating the train authorities. Chester is the master mechanic of the Marietta and North Georgia raod and has the reputation of being one of the most careful an experienced engineers in the state.

HON. W. R. GORMAN

HAS SOME THING TO SAY ABOUT THE ALLIANCE AND POLITICS. The Subtreasury Will Be Affirmed at Ocala-The "Georgian" Letters and Mr.

Pat Calhoun, Etc., Etc. "I notice in The Journal this evening another fling at Pat Calhoun," remarked Hon. W. R. Gorman, last evening, as he pointed to the paragraph referred to. "That's another attempt of the enemies of the alliance to dictate whom we shall elect." He talked for a few minutes in the same strain and then branched out upon politics in general. Mr. Gorman is an alliance leader of note, and what he has to say carries weight "What do you think about the attitude of the alliance in regard to Georgia politics?" he

"Well, suppose we begin with the sub-treasury," he said. "Phat is the issue now, and will be the issue of the next presidential campaign. As you know, the order in the south is practically a unit on that, and any member opposed to it is not considered a good allianceman. We are expecting to have in the next congress thirty to forty alliancemen, but Lave no hope of doing more than fully to arouse the people to the importance of that measure. We have gone far enough to know that true politicians of both the old parties are opposed to us, and we expect in '92 to put enough of our men in the house to control it, and who knows but what we may elect the president? This is a people's movement, entirely independent of either party. The people seem to be satisfied that neither one of the old parties can de anything for the relief of the country, and have taken the matter into their own hands, and as we understand it, there is no politics in it; we are leaving that behind us. Now the subtreasury, as you know, em-bodies our plan for relief, and while we claim that no financial scheme yet proposed will benefit the farmer to the extent that this does, we also claim that the people generally will be benefited by it. It is a people's measure, and it it is on this line strictly that we make only here at the south that this lis true; in the north and west, the alliance is composed of democrats and republicans and you see in a moment the impolicy of doing what you propose. The democratic party can never do what the alliance has undertaken to lo for reasons too obious to mention. The aliance will win its way to every hamlet in the orth and west, and it makes no difference whether a man be a democrat or republican, if he goes to congress representing the illiance idea, he may rest assured that we will neet him on a common platform and give the ountry the relief it needs. But what becomes if the democratic party while all this is going n? It will remain intact and become more a arty of the people and for the people than it ver has been. The party in South Carolina undergoing the process of purification now, nd just what Haskell and his friends are oing there will be done here by those who set emselves up as the oracles of democracy."

"But why not make it a party measure-it begins to look as if the alliance was the demo cratic party?"

"One more question on the line of the sub-reasury. It is reported that some of our alance candidates for congress are willing to abide the action of a party caucus on that matter. How about that? "The subtreasury is not a matter to be subjected to the action of a party caucus. The subtreasury is, we think, a perfect scheme for the relief of the country, and is gaining ground daily and in every section. When we have succeeded in passing this measure through congress, it will be seen that we have not only given the country the relief it has so long needed, but that we have also obliterated sectionalism and made the people one from the lakes to the

"What about the senatorial qtestion? You are quoted as saying that the senator should be "I am still of that opinion."

"But suppose the legislature should be unable to agree udon a man inside the order, who rould be your choice among outsiders?"

"Will, I would say Mr. Pat Calhoun, in preference to all. If he be the author of the ers that appeared in THE CONSTITU on the subtreasury, over the signature of 'A Georgian, and I suppose there is no doubt about that, then he is my choice. Those letters have shown much research and study and given evidence of ability of the highest order. His analysis of the bill has had a surprising effect all over the country, and has relieved it of its most objectionable features. The bill will be reaffirmed at the approaching convention at Ocala, Fla., and I have no doubt but that his suggestions will be incorporated as amendments and the objectionable features stricken out. Those letters are remarkable productions, and have excited attention in the country generally. I don't tention in the country generally. I don't know that he is a candidate, but if he should be the alliance leader of the whole union, and his talents will make him as famous as his grandfather was sixty years ago.
"Upon the whole, I rather like the idea of having a grandson of John C. Calhoun at the head of this great movement." REVENUE COLLECTIONS. The Report for the District for the Month

IT WAS A GROUND SWELL.

Just Like That Which Followed the Rascally Kelffer Administration.

Congressmen Candler and Stewart were the two happiest men in Atlanta yesterday.

The democratic victory and the overthrow of Tom Reed were the causes. Both came to Atlanta to get the latest returns and celebrate the triumph of democracy. "The magnificent victory of the democracy," said Congressman Candler, of the ninth, at the Kimball last evening, "was just such a ground swell as we had after the Keiffer administration in the forty-seventh congress. Keiffer was as absolutely devoid of conscience and as bitterly as absolutely devoid of conscience and as bitterly partisan as Tom Reed, although he did not possess the brains of the Maine man. His administration gave us the forty-eighth congress by about seventy majority, just as we will have it this time. But there is a difference between our victory now and then. Then the republicans saved all their leaders. Now they have none left except Reed and Lodge, as Lodge barely counts. The defeat of McKinley, Mason and Cameron materially weakens the republicans. "There is another thing I like about this victory," he continued. "It is the success of the people's ticket in Kansas. This very thing will eventually result in Kansas and other western states becoming democratic.

"Again, for Georgia this victory is splendid. It means that Charlic Crisp will be the next speaker. He is by odds the best fitted man for this office in the house, and you will find he will be elected almost without contest.

"Indeed, I am proud of Tom Winn's splenity."

will be elected almost without contest.

"Indeed, I am proud of Tom Winn's splendid race in the ninth. I believe his majority over both other candidates will be fully 3,000, and Tom will make a good congressinan, too."

"I am always afraid of a reformed drunk-"I am always afraid of a reformed drunkard," said Congressman Stewart, of this district, "until he is dead and gone to heaven. I was a little anxions about those election returns at first, but I am now ready to celebrate.
And when the house meets the democrats should celebrate by giving Tom Reed a dose of his own medicine—turn him out. Were I there, my vote would be to oust him. Oh, yes, the result means Crisp for speaker, without the shadow of a doubt."

"United We Stand."

The campaign through which the people of Georgia have passed has not been as bitter as the campaigns in other states. True, there has been some bitterness, but this was mostly confined to newspapers. Between the candidates themselves the friendliest rivalry has existed, and no wounds were made which will outlast the election.

With the issue decided, the light wounds of the fight will heal without a scar, and no memories of it will rankle in the breasts of victor and vanquished. We can all rejoice in the victory, for its benefits will fall upon all.

While the last echoes of the fight are dying down the distance, the democracy of Georgia stands solidly united; political enemies forget their differences, and we are back to business with honest hearts and willing hands. We can go to work for Georgia now with renewed energy and enterprise. The battle ended, let the chief thought of all be the good and glory of the state.

And such it will be. There is great work before us. The prestige of the past is the hope of the future. In the strength of a perfect union of hearts, hands and interests we will march on to greater and grander achievements. The state is safe. Let us keep it so and make the future!

South Carolina Safe.

The democrats of South Carolina have done their duty, and the old Palmetto

From the beginning until the close of the campaign the anxious interest of the south was centered in South Carolina, for in no southern state has such danger threatened the democracy. A house divided against itself, it was feared that the party would fail of its high purpose, and that if success was attained, it would only be "as by fire," and with difficulty and strife.

But democracy has triumphed; the regular democratic ticket has been elected; the congressional districts are safely democratic; independentism and republicanism have suffered a severe rebuke, and for years to come the future of South Carolina will be safe in the hands of her loyal and patriotic people.

One peculiar feature of the election was that the full negro vote was not polled, many of the negroes refusing to vote at all, and others not caring to leave their work in the fields and cities long enough to deposit their ballots.

The republicans in congress are likely to place the usual construction on this falling off of the negro vote and cry, "intimidation." But the cry will not avail them. Our dispatches indicate that the election was perfectly fair and honest. It was certainly peaceful and unproductive of the strife anticipated. No quieter election has ever taken place in South Carolina.

There is a general shout of rejoicing throughout the happy and redeemed states where the tidal wave of democracy has swept. From state to state the echoes ring. But while rejoicing in the victory at home, Georgia, in common with her sister states. sends cordial greeting to South Carolina. The democrats have done their duty nobly, and crowned with the laurels of hard-fought. honest victory, they deserve and will receive the hearty cheers of the democracy of the whole south.

Southern hats are in the air today, and southern cheers are loyal, loud and long!

Tammany's Victory. To Tammany Georgia and the south send greetings and congratulations. In the face of fraud aud hypocrisy, and in spite of slanders and lies, the unterrified democrats, who, in more than one campaign, have made Tammany the hope of the country, have won a notable victory.

The opposition which they had to overcome mustered abroad in the name of reform and morality. Many good men, and women too, were deceived by the professions of the arrant hypocrites, who, while wearing the cloak of the reformer. also were the collar of Tom Platt. This cunning republican leader marshaled his forces behind a democratic mask. A democratic candidate in opposition to Tammany gave Platt and his touters an opportunity to play the reform game. and he made haste to enlist in his service the mugwump editors of The Evening Post and The Commercial Advertiser, who have long been posing as pro-

The result of this combination between the highdaddies of reform and the Miss Nancys of mugwumpism has been a campaign which for fraud, hypocrisy and lying has rarely been equaled in this country. Without any excuse whatever. and with a recklessness that could only proceed from mercenary motives, the editors of the mugwump papers charged that leading southern journals had sold their editorial columns to Tammany.

Under all circumstances, the victory of Tammany is a notable one. If, as Mr. the un-American principles and methods Halstead declares, a vote for Tammany was a vote for David B. Hill, the esses a special significance for cance, however, may be allowed to take care of itself. Just at this time the cess of the straight democratic ticket in New York city assures the country of a democratic triumph in New York state in 1892.

Plattism, mugwumpism, fraud and hypocrisy have been disposed of.

Colonel Buck's Unredeemed Promises Nearly two years ago our Washington correspondent wired us that Colonel Buck obtained supremacy of Georgia patronage by representing to the president that if Colonel S. A. Darnell was appointed federal attorney he would be elected congressman from the ninth district. THE CONSTITUTION has no desire to deal harshly with the president, but for nearly two years it has been the wonder of our people that he could have listened for a second to the improbable statements of Colonel Buck and his advisers. To their promises that the mountaineers of the ninth district would stultify themselves by being misrepresented by a republican is heard the resonant answer of those hardy, brave people. Colonel Darnell even failed to carry his own county, his own town and militia district.

President Harrison has been misled by these servitors, who burned incense under his nose. Having been deceived by them, what will the president do?

Two Strong Men.

In the congressional campaign which has just closed with such a happy climax for the democracy, two strong men loomed up as the leaders of the opposing parties.

The republicans found that when the fight was hottest the Reeds. Lodges and Ingallses were not equal to the work that was required. Their speeches failed to fire the republican heart, and the president, himself, could not stir up any degree of popular enthusiasm.

The emergency was desperate, and Mr. Blaine, with a full consciousness of his great powers, leaped to the front and exerted all his magnetism and gifts of oratory to carry the day, but the task was too great even for the Plumed Knight. The fact was developed, however, that Mr. Blaine was by all odds the brainlest and most popular statesman of his party. In every state that he visited he received tremendous ovations. His speeches

He pushed sectionalism to the rear. He did not endorse the details of the McKinley bill, but made a plausible argument in favor of protection, and drew a bright picture of the general prosperity of our country under the workings of his reci-democrats clamored for it, but when the republicans voted solidly for it the dem-declaration in the same speeches that, if the democrats had a good idea the republicans would stand by them, the publicans stand by the democrats when the latter clamored for reciprocity? As a matter of fact he knew that the democratic idea of reciprocity is very different from his sham article which he has brought forward to tickle the western farmers, who are bitterly opposed to many features in the McKinley bill.

Still, the republicans will readily overlook such weak points. Mr. Blaine is a winning talker, and although his words are sometimes meaningless, they

On the democratic side in this exciting campaign there was one bold and brilliant champion, who waited for no urgent appeal to do his duty. At the very beginning of the struggle Governor David

B. Hill, of New York, threw himself into the thick of the fight, with all his heart and soul, and worked with indomitable energy day and night until the end.

Governor Hill's plan of campaign was absolutely perfect. He planted himself upon the time-honored principles of democracy. He showed in an unanswerable way how the robber tariff of McKinley drained

the pockets of the people, impoverishing

the many for the benefit of the the few.

He showed that it would inevitably make the rich richer and the poor poorer.

Then he made the claim that the American people were capable of self-government, and could be trusted to go to the polls without being surrounded by bayonets. He tore the mask from Quay in Pennsylvania, and denounced the Russian methods of Reed and his associates in the house and senate, where they had violated the laws and traditions of a century to serve partisan aims. When the warning was needed he told his hearers to make no

Pennsylvania will be to provide the democrac with a new candidate for the presidency. Also this: A vote for Grant for mayor is a vote for Hill for resident. 'Rah, 'rah, 'rah.

The Democratic Scoop. Although Matthew S. Quay, by his silence, has practically confessed that he is a corruptionist of extensive experience and large qualifications, it must be conceded that he has more brains than any other republican now before the country. It was Quay who, reading the handwriting on the wall, implored the repubmatter of policy he could not have lican senators to drop the force bill into the waste basket, and permit the country to forget it. He succeeded at last in his efforts to suppress that infamous measure, but the senate had already the facts of the case. For instance he shown its temper and its teeth in the matter, and although the bill was laid vided on the question of reciprocity, the aside, the people saw that the real attitude of the senate was in favor of this new attempt to re-establish chaos and ocrats suddenly shifted their ground and confusion in the south.

This was the real situation. The con servative people of the country saw the reckless tendencies of the republicans in preparations for rekindling the fires of sectionalism, and for making another disastrous crusade against the south. They saw the audacity of Speaker Reed communicate itself to the rest of the republican leaders; they beheld evidences of the most wanton waste and extravagance in the expenditure of the public funds; and they witnessed the sinister results of a combination between the republican leaders and the monopolies of the country, whereby the farmers and the laboring men are to be taxed for the benefit of the millionaire manufacturers in return for substantial contributions to the republican corruption fund.

Nothing but an earnest desire on the part of the people to right these wrongs could have brought about such a political revolution as that which occurred last Tuesday. It is a complete and crushing rejection of the republican effort to disfranchise the south in the congressional elections; it is a complete and crushing rejection of the republican tariff policy. has been said that there is no limit to the audacity of the republicans and while this may be true, it is also true that there is a sharp and well-de fined limit to the patience of the people. There have been frequent hints and intimations in the republican organs of late to the effect that, no matter how the election turned, the president would call an extra session of congress for the purpose of making a law of the force

It will be interesting to observe the outcome of these intimations. There is no doubt that Mr. Harrison is anxious for the bill to become a law. It is well known that it was all his bosom friend Quay could do to prevent him from bringing an official pressure to bear on those senators who thought they saw in the force bill a democratic campaign document of large proportions, and if he is still of the same mind, he will no doubt call an extra session and allow the republican senators to wrestle with will increase the cost of living and reduce the cost of luxuries. It is the most outrageous measure of taxation ever prepared in the American congress." In New Hampshire, the democrats de-scribed the McKinley bill "as nothing less than a deed of conveyance by the republican party of the enormous power of federal taxation to a ombination of manufacturers and trusts, in consideration of money advanced by them with which the election of Benjamin Harrison was

The Massachusetts convention asserted that the "McKinley bill was the most iniquitous piece of legislation ever attempted in this country," and insisted that free ore was needed for the "languishing iron industry."

The Rhode Island democrats demanded the "abolition of the customs tax on ra-for the manfacturer."

The other paragraphs of these platforms were strong condemnations of Speaker Reed's eating of duly elected representatives, or the creation of voters through states of the force bill nd the wild and reckless extravagance of the najority party.

All the issues were national; but the most powerful appeal to New England was expressed in the Massachusetts and Rhode Island platforms. It York, consequently no platform was adopted. But in the west, where the gains of congressin the west, where the gains of congressmen indicated the prevalence of the same sentiment, the platforms spoke vigorously on the tariff and on other national issues. Nebraska, where a democratic congressman is gained, even the republican convention favored "a revision of the tariff in the interests of the producer and laborer." The Indiana democrats denounced "the McKinley bill as the most outrageous measure of taxation ever proposed in the American congress." They said: "It will make life harder for every farmer and wage-earner in the land, in order that the profits of monopolies and trusts may be swelled."

"We are in favor of a tariff for revenue only," declared the lowa demacrats.

The Illionois democrate asserted that a "tariff is a tax," and insisted that it ought to be levied on luxuries and not the necessaries of life. They condemned "the McKinly bill as a crime and conspiracy to impoverish the masses and enrich manufacturers already millionaires." While this great popular movement was undermining the republicans in Massachusetts, a deep and angry feeling pervaded New Qork. The immense storm of indignation against the misuse of power at Washington took within tag impetuous sweep all minor and municipal issaies. Every democratic triumph was largely a national triumph. New York city had abundant cause of complaint against the republicans of the state, but the people voted for congressien because New York's commerce had been attacked and because the prices of the necessaries of life were going up in consequence of the McKinley act. This statute aroused opposition even in the manufacturing cities of Rochester and Buffalo, while in the agricultural districts the farmer gave evidence that he at least recognized the fact that he was the burden-bearer of the protective system.

Similar vigorous denunciations of the McKinley nized the fact that he was the backtoned the protective system.

Similar vigorous denunciations of the McKinley bill are to be found in the democratic platforms of Minnesota and Wisconsin, where the democrats have made large congressional gains. The possibility that the legislature of this state will be democratic upon joint ballot is one of the most gratifying surprises of the election. If the hope shall be realized it can have but on just and logical result—the election of Governo Hill to the United States senate. The democratical thin the state is due to Governor Hill more than this state is due to Governor Hill more than the state is due to Governor Hill more than t Hill to the United States senate. The demo-victory in this state is due to Governor Hill than to any other man. It is he who has ducted, with unsleeping vigilance and sagacity, for many years, the contest against publican legislature. It is he who has out organized and led the campaigns of the dratic party in this state. He is entitled to honors of the victory, whether it be complecratic party in this state. He is chittled to honors of the victory, whether it be completed only partial. More than this, Governor Hill developed into a national leader. He proadened as a politician and riself to a hip plane as a statesman. His intellectual go of the tariff and other national questions, and his power of cogent and convincing argument upon them were illustrated to his great act and go in his speeches in Ohio, West Virginia and Connecticut this year. Governor 'Hill would stand in the senate as the leading representative of the great political revolution of this year. In which he has borne so conspicuous a part. He would be also, a faithful and worthy senator of the state of New York, whose interests he has guarded so well. If the democrats have the votes, there should be no question of the election of David B. Hill as senator.

After a defeat, the natural question is as to t cause. It suits democratic purposes to claim the people have condemned the McKinley bill, t the people have condemned the McKinley bill, t election bill and the administration. Republic apathy, indifference and general off-y-arishne they interpret as positive refusal to uphold de measures and the management of the republic

Thus it is evident that in many quarters, as this city, many thousand republicans failed to vends at all. The election bill has not be so far discussed or brought home to the sity has been fully appreciated. Had the repulican senators treated this matter as it about inderstanding of voters that its jus lican senators treated this matter as it show have been treated, in due regard to the public w fare or the interest of the party, the ne a federal election law would have been as clear seen, and the measure as warmly supported, the Australian or other ballot reform lav have been in most of the states. The appare inuifference or hostility of some senators pre-vented the passage of that essential measure, and left the impression with many well meaning republicans that the bill was unwisand wrong. It remains to be seen whether those senators will continue in a course which has unquestionably done much barm. Had a good election law been passed with reasonable promptn at the last session, the democrats would he failed to carry by improper methods, many og gressional districts, which they have now carri The tariff has been carefully misrepresented, and its workings have been honestly misunderstood, beyond a doubt, by many thousand voters. The promotion of industry, the opening of new works and new demands for labor, the cheapening of produce to consumers through home competition, all are in the future. It is not strange if many men of average intelligence have here less influenced by belief in intelligence have been less influenced by belief in these results than by some actual and infinitely Thousands of importers and agents of foreig firms have been made angry, and they have dor all they could to defeat a party which has pre ferred the welfare of this nation to their persona some eastern states, who have grown to regard the tariff as a thing which ought to be fixed with exclusive regard to their pri-vate pockets, find that a measure which honestly strives to help all industry benefit all labor, does not suit them. They would not dare to support the democ party, when its success would mean reduction ty, when its success would mean reduction of oval of duties on manufactured products. But they have not been patriotic end from hitting and trying to hurt the republican party, because it did not regard their private in-terests exclusively. Mr. Hartridge, chairman, reported that the committee to wait upon Governor Gordon with the committee from the senate, had performed its mission, and that the governor would communicate at a future day.

Mr. Fleming, of Richmond, moved that there be a joint session Tuesday, at 10 o'clock, the senate concurring, for the purpose of open-ing and deciding upon the state election returns. Carried COMMITTEES ANNOUNCED.

Following is a list of the committees resolutions providing for them:

Committee on Securing Officers—Boifeuillet, Whateley, Pope, Barrett and Hand.

Committee to Select a Chaplain-Gilbert Whateley, Hill, Clifton, Mason, Maxwell and Lumsden.

Committee to Confer with Senate—Hart-ridge, Huff, Lewis, Martin and Barrett. The house then adjourned until today at 10 o'clock.

Many think it will be a short session, and one thing is certain, it has started out with an air of business about it.

Mr. W. H. Fleming, however, says there is much to be done, and speaking on this line

"As regards the length of the sesion, I am in favor of getting down to our work and completing it as soon as possible. But there is one important matter that will probably make summer session necessary. It will be the duty of this general assembly to re-apportion the state representatives among the counties and re-arrange the state senatorial districts, and in all probability the congressional districts, in accordance with the United States "We might get the official returns at once from the census bureau and settle the question so far as it relates to state representatives and state senators, but to fix the congressional districts will require the basis of apportionment which is to be determined by congress.

Now in the matter of the last census, owing to delay in the returns, congress did not pass the apportionment bill until February 25, 1882, and consequently our general assembly 1880-1 had no work of this kind to do. It went over till 1882-3. But the returns of the census of 1890 are being pushed up, and there is no doubt, I presume, that the present republican congress will pass the next apportionment bill. But that will hardly be done before Christmas, as congress does not meet until

In case the present legislature should not act upon this subject, the apportionment bill would doubtless provide in some way for elect-ing congressmen at large, if Georgia's number should be increased. If it remains the same, we would still have to make some changes in the lines of the districts, so as to conform to the basis of representation.

IN THE SENATE.

Hon. R. G. Mitchell Made President-The

Day's Work. When Secretary W. A. Harris, of Worth -without whom no Georgia senate could possibly be a senate—called that body to order yesterday, it was exactly four and threequarter minutes past 10 o'clock.

Instantly the conversation subsided; senators-elect took their legs off the desks and straightway became dignified and sedate; and over the hall and gallery there was a hush of expectancy.
"Senators elect"—a silent but distinct acknowledgment on the part of that body-"will please come to order!"

Nobody but the long-time secretary himself.

could have produced that effect with so few words.
"Gentlemen who are not senators will please vacatce senators' seats, if they occupy them!"

And immediately-'Senators, the time having arrived, in obedience to the requirements of law, I shall proceed to organize the honorable senate of 1890. Senators, as their names are called, will please answer, so it can be seen if a quorum is present." Assistant Secretary Henry Cabaniss started with the roll call. "From the first district, the Hon. W. P. Williams."

"From the second district, the Hon. M. T. And so on, through all the forty-four senatorial districts of Georgia. They were all present. "There is a quorum present,"

Secretary Harris. No protest. It rather seemed as if this result was expected; and the senate submitted. "Before proceeding further in the organization of this honorable body," continued Colonel Harris, "let us invoke God's blessing upon it."

Rev. J. Jones, the chaplain of the last senate, offered a fervent and appropriate prayer. This concluded, the body was ready

ELECTION OF OFFICERS. The qualification of senators followed. The members were called in lots of nine, and took the oath with their hands all touching the Bible, after which they kissed the book

The first to complete this ceremony—and, herefore, the first senator qualified—was Hon. J. W. Boyd, of the fifth.

The oath was administered by Judge C. J.

Wellborn, of the northeastern circuit.

The following officers were then elected:
Robert G. Mitchell, president.
George W. Warren, president pro tem. W. A. Harris, secretary. R. T. Paulk, messenger. L. J. Allred, doorkeeper.

Rev. J Jones, chaplain. There were only two nom lent. Mr. Mitchell was put in nomination by tor Johnson, of the twenty-first.

Mr. James P. Walker, of the twelfth, was minated by Senator Gill, of the tenth. There was only one ballot.

Mr. Mitchell was escorted to the chair by a committee of three senators, Walker, Terrell and Cabaniss. He was greeted with applause as he ascended to his position. He made a brief but happy expression of thanks, assuming control of the body as its presiding officer. Secretary Harris was re-elected without one dissenting voice or expression of opposition.

It was a flattering recognition of his past services in that position that he was chosen again by a unanimous vote.

For the position of messenger there were three nominations. Mr. Paulk, who is from Irwin county, was elected on the first ballot, receiving 23 votes; his opponents, ex-Senator Julian, of Forsyth county, and Mr. W. H. McAfee, of Lumpkin, 14 and 7 respectively Mr. L. J. Allred, of Pickens, was the only candidate for doorkeeper; having whipped his fight outside.

He has been doorkeeper a long while, and it seems impossible to beat him, even if anybody wished it.

President Pro Tem. Warren was nominated by Senator Joe Terrell. He had only one opponent, and was elected on the first ballot. The vote stood: G. W. Warren, 29.

C. H. Eilington, 15. Rev. John Jones, who was elected chaplain of the last upper house.

NO GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE. One feature of the usual opening day exercises were lacking yesterday—the reading of a message from the governor.

The form of appointing a joint committee was carried out-five from the house and three from the senate, to notify the governor that both houses had completed their organization and were ready to receive a message from him. They reported back to their respective houses that the governor had no mes-sage ready, but would communicate one in writing within a few days. Another joint committee, two from the sen-ate and three from the house, was appointed to inquire into and report what officers are to be elected by this general assembly.

Senators O'Neal of the eighth and R. M. W. Glenn of the forty-fourth represent the senate.

A house resolution was concurred in; allowing the Fulton County Horticultural Society to use the capitol rotunda today and tomorrow

First attacked with BLIND PILES, which annoyed me for years; BLEEDING PILES followed, which frequently confined me to the bed, leaving me unfit for business. Within a few days they have attacked me in full force, and that most excruciating of the hemorrhoid family, the ITCHING PILES, superseded both. Having become pos-sessed of some POND'S EXTRACT, I applied it freely, undiluted. Had Heaven and Earth come together I would hot have been more surprised. I never dreamed of a cure. The outline of the convention work has already been fully given in these columns.

From the programme prepared it is apparent that this meeting of the convention will be an unusually interesting one. There are special features to be introduced that will be unusually attractive.

Prominent people from all over the country -every state and territory in the union having delegates to the convention.

Addresses upon all topics relating to the interest to the delegates and others, will be made. Governor Northen will make an address of welcome, so will also Mayor Glenn and a number of other prominent people, including Mrs. Sibley for the Woman's Christian Temperance Tnion of Georgia, and Mrs. Chapin, of Charleston, for the south. Altogether the Woman's Christian Temperance Union convention, which meets here on the 14th, will be one of the most notable gath erings that has ever assembled in Atlanta. Extensive preparations have been made to entertain the delegates by the citizens. In a few days other officers and delegates will begin to arrive.

A MOTHER TO THE RESCUE.

She Snatches Her Child from Almost Be neath the Wheels of an Approaching Car. What might have been a very serious accident was prevented by a mother's devotion to her child yesterday.

It happened on the new dummy line, near Berner avenue, in the vicinity of the cemetery and Grant park.

A little child was playing in the sunshine of the beautiful autumn day, the fond mother busy with her household duties in the little cottage close by.

The dummy line runs past the house, and the grade there is pretty heavy.

In its frolicking with the sunbeams the child climbed up the bank and got between the tracks, and was playing there all unconscious of the danger that overhung her innocent head, when a heavy hand car dashed around a curve in the track and was rushing down upon

At the noise of the approaching wheels, the mother glanced up from her work. She was horrified to see her darling upon the track and the car almost upon her. The men shouted and did their utmost to check the speed of the car, but the little one could not be made to realize her danger, and the heavy wheels could not be stopped.

Taking in the perilous situation at the first glance, the horrified mother dropped her work and with a few eager bounds had her babe clasped in her arms.

But she had not been quite quick enough. The car struck the child, and but for the brunt of the shock being received by the frightened mother just as she snatched it from the track. might have been seriously hurt.

The lady was Mrs. Butler. She and her child were both slightly hurt by the car, but neither was seriously injunctive.

seriously injured.

se workmen on the car had almost succeeded in checking the speed of the car when

Dr. Avary was summoned. He dressed neir wounds and both mother and child are getting along nicely.

Effle Ellsler Tonight.

The charming lady will appear tonight in her beautiful play of "The Governess," supported by a first-class company, including our young Miss Loula Porter, Mr. Weston, Mr. John A. Ellsler and other metropolitan artists. We learn that our citizens intend to make of this evening's per-formance a gala affair in honor of Miss Porter, and that the house will be crowded. The Zouaves have engaged a number of boxes and our society people contemplate coming en masse.

Everybody who frequents the theater know Miss Ellsler. She is a real artist; possessing all the elements of her art, and endowed by nature for the stage. She never fails to personate perfeetly every character she assumes; and, in what ever situation, she portrays it with the most artistic skill. She is equally good in comedy, in os, in tragic passages, and can lin turns make pathos, in tragic passages, the her audience laugh, cry, or thrilled.

The Detroit Free Press thus expressed its appreciation of Miss Ellsler:

"An artistic performance was that given by Effic Ellsler and her admirable company last night. Miss Ellsler plays with power, pathos and all womanly grace. It is refreshing to see her act, accomplished in both the art and trade of acting. There are so few of whom this can be fittingly said that we must continue to regard Miss Ellsler as one of our most precious possessions." Lizzie Evans.

Lizzie Evans, the popular little comedienne, will appear at DeGive's opera house next Wednesday and Thursday nights, in a new version of her popular comedy, "Fogg's Ferry," which has lately been revised and re-written. The play will be produced with special scenery and will have the benefit of a strong cast.

On Thursday night "The Buckeye" will be presented, with Lizzie Evans in her original character of "Mary Jane."

THE COLUMBUS EXPOSITION.

It Opens Under the Most Favorable Auspices.

COLUMBUS, Ga., November 5.—[Special.]— The Chattahoochee Valley exposition opened here today under the most favorable circum-stances. The weather was beautiful, the crowd large and the exhibits better than the average seen at expositions. Side attractions are usually large. Everything points to a sually large. Everything points to a com-lete success of the enterprise. At noon today long procession, consisting of the mayor and ouncil, the local and visiting military, exposicouncil, the local and visiting military, exposi-tion directors and prominent visitors and citi-zens generally, formed on Broad street, and, headed by the Fourth Artillery band, of Atlanta, proceeded to the exposition park, where the opening ceremonies took place. Colonel Lionel C. Levy made an eloquent opening address, and then President Slade announced the formal opening of the exposition.

MR. BRANHAM IS ALIVE,

Brunswick, Ga., November 5.—[Special.]—Mr. A. I. Branham, editor of The Brunswick Times, has been seriously ill for the past three weeks, having suffered a relapse from his first attack, which laid him up in Atlanta. Some one, it is not known whom, sent a telegram from here today to Atlanta and other places, that Mr. Branham was dead. This is false, as he was in his office this afternoon, doing editorial work. While Mr. Branham was ill editorial work. While Mr. Brannam was ill for three weeks there was not a day that he did not do work, more or less, on The Times. Any rumor that he is dead is false, although he is still seriously ill. His physician thinks he will soon be able to resume permanently his accustomed duty.

ATHENS, Ga., November 5.—[Special.]—

He had been here for some Bros. He had been here for forger. He belonged to the Young Men's forger. He belonged to the Young Men's Christian Association, and was foremost in religious exercises. It was supposed that he had gone in answer to some telegram, and although his disappearance was mysterious, nevertheless, it was not looked upon in a bad light until the news arrived today. Mr. A. H. Hodgson, however, knew the cause of his sudden departure, and not telling any one of it, left for Atlanta, and recovered his money as noted in THE CONSTITUTION. It seems to be the prevailing impressions among those with whom he associated that there was a screw loose in his nature, and that his mind was not evenly balanced. He left owing several debts, among which was one to J. H. Langford & Co., tailors.

At 40 clock this evening, Mr. Langford re-ceived a telegram that McKenzie was in Marshallville, and he at once telegraphed to have him arrested. It is said that McKenzie's family possessed considerable means, and that he was not pressed for money, but his mind was evidently unhinged on this subject.

For Mr. Leak's Consideration.—An Atlanta gentleman, writing to The Constitution, says:
Would it not be pertinent to advise Mr. S. Garlington Leak to consult Mr. Robert Ingersoil before giving "For The Constitution" such large installments from the latter's writings?
We will admit, "at initio," the superiority of Ingersoil, hence no objections can be assed to the plagiarism, but "Leak on Love" wouldn't stand the "deadly parallel" forever and a day."

He Needs Help .- George Ihl, who came to Atlanta several weeks ago as a member of the Grau opera troup, is quite ill at the St Joseph's in-firmary. Mr. Ihl is without a dollar, and those charitably inclined can help him by remitting to Deserved Compliment .- "The exposition is over and we've nearly quit talking about it," said a well-known Atlantian yesterday, "but there are still some things that ought to be said before we let the subject rest. And," he continued, "one o these is about Joe Thompson. Of all the gentle-men who lent their energies to the success of the exposition, none did harder or better work than he. He worked like a Trojan to get those magnificent stables of race horses here, and when they came he was constantly on the alert to make the races a success. And if he didn't succeed—well, I never saw a race meeting that was a success in any way—that's all. And I've seen a few of 'em, too. The racing was one of the biggest attractions at the exposition, as the thousands of people who visited the great show acknowledged the interest and enthusiasm which manifested in it. There never was such an aggregation of race horses in this vicinity before, and in fact the races were a revelation to many of us. Hardly an uninteresting dash was run during the two weeks. The horse were among the very best in the country, and, as I have said, to Joe Thompson is due a big part of the credit for getting them here. The people were captured by the races; the horsemen all went away feeling that they had been handsomely treated, and Mr. Thompson and the other gentle-men of the racing committee ought to feel highly

His Condition Unchanged .- Bill Williams, the neuro prisoner who was cut at the county jail yes-terday by Harry Wyatt, is still in a serious con-dition. He was not able to take any nourishment yesterday, and while his condition has not im-proved any. Dr. Gruffin has hopes of being able to bring him through all right.

Sent Home .- W. S. Saunders, the man who was taken in charge by the police on account of his peculiar actions at the Kimball house Tuesday morning, was taken to his home at Morrow Station yesterday by a friend who came up for him. Mr. Saunders has been sick for sometime, and his derranged mental condition it is thought was due to the suffering he endured.

The Gainesville Fair .- The Gainesville Fair Association have posted lithographs in Atlanta announcing their fair to be held on the 11th, 12th, 13th, and 14th.

Death of an Infant.—William P. Ridge, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Ridge, died last night at the residence, No. 385 Houston. The babe was ill only a few days, and its death was a great shock to the fond parents. The funeral will take place from the residence this afternoon.

He Is the Man. ATLANTA, Ga., November 5 .- With perfect con fidence in the purity, patriotism and splendld business qualifications of Major W. A. Hemphill, we take great pleasure in endorsing him and ex-tending him our hearty and cordial support of his andidacy for mayor of the city of Atlanta. He is man upon whom all factions and business inter ests may safely unite. In the past we have hon-estly differed as to measures and policy affecting this people's interests, but never doubted for a moment his sincerity of purpose, honesty of in-tention, or faithful endeavor to advance the best interests of the masses of our people. For Mayor of Atlanta.

The friends of Hon. Anton Kontz announce him as a candidate for the mayoralty of Atlanta. They point with pride to his record as a citizen, as a business man, as an officer, as a public servant and as a friend. Atlanta needs a man of nerve, of probity, of high personal character, who relies upon his own judgment, and who cannot be swerved for mayor. Such a man is Anton Konts, and as such the suffrages of the people are asked for him.

Atlanta can boast, in the person of one o her prominent citizens, Mr. H. C. Stockdell the possession of one of the most prominen members of the Masonic fraternity in the south, if not in the United States. Mr. Stock dell is yet a comparatively young man, bu his career as a Mason has been most marked he having taken almost every degree known to the order, and having served his chosen society in every conceivable form.

Mr. Stockdell was initiated into the mysteries of Freemasonry in the early part of 1878, and rose gradually through all the orders and

C. STOCKDELL. agress in the York (really American) rite to that of a Knight Templar, holding nearly all the prominent offices in the several bodies of which he has been a member. He presided for several years as high priest of Mount Zion Royal Arch Chapter, eminent com-mander of Cœur de Lion Commandery of Knights Templar, and as venerable master of Hermes Lodge of Perfection, wise master of White Eagle Chapter, Rose Croix, and in October 1888, was appointed knight commander of the Court of Honor of the southern jurisdiction, by the Supreme Council, which body is presided over by the venerable Albert Pike as grand commander. He has taken an active interest in the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for several years past, and upon the death of the lamented Brother Thomas W. Chandler, this city, was appointed by Richard J. Nunn, of Savannah, as his deputy-he being the inspector general-active member of the supreme council for the state of Georgia. While each and every advancement in the different degrees and orders has been duly appreciated, the last and final step, the attainment of the thirty-third degree, is, of course, prized almost beyond human conception, and it only remains for the future to tell whether or not the conferring of this great honor upon our friend and citizen will redound to the interest and advancement of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, of which he should now and always be a prominent as well as a profound exponent. Between the two rites-"Scottish" and "York"—there is no conflict, but they work separately beyond the third degree. Owing to lack of interest the former has not prospered as' it should in this section, while rapid strides have been made in the latter. As time goes on, however, there is an increasing desire on the part of the more intelligent Masons of the higher degrees in the York rite for more light in Masoffry, and they naturally look to the Scottish rite with all its beautiful lessons, embracing as it does all the virtues which go to make for man a life of true happiness. Not that these are not found in the York rite, but that in the Scottish rite there is more of it, and we should not tire of good things.

Mr. Stockdell is justly proud if this greatest of all honors. the conferring upon him of the thirty-third degree, which was done in Washington city, on the 22d of last month, by the supreme council of the southern jurisdiction of the United States of America, mother council of

He is about the youngest thirty-third degree Mason in the southern jurisdiction, if not in the United States, and now holds membership in the following bodies: Georgia Lodge, No. 96; Mount Zion Royal Arch Chapter, No. 16; Jason Burr Council, Royal and Select Masters; Cour de Lion Commandery Knights Templar No. 4, of the York (or American) Rite; Hermes Lodge of Perection No. 4, White Eagle Chapter Rose Croix, and Honorary Thirty-Third of the supreme council of the southern jurisdiction of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite. He has also attained the degree of high priesthood as past high priest of the Royal Arch Chapter, and on the 20th of October last received the degree of the Royal Order of Scotland, whose membership in the United States is limited to

150. This order is now pre-sided over by a temporary officer called a provincial grand master, and the head of it in the United States is General Albert Pike. The permanent commanding officer must be the king of England, and until England has one the order must be ruled as above by the provincial grand master. Mr. Stockdell is also potentate of Yaarab Temple of the ancient Arabic order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, and while the order lays no claims to Masonry, it holds no one for membership eligible who is not a Kuight Templar, or a Thirty-Second Degree Scottish Rite Mason in good standing, thereby bringing together the brethren of the two rites in the promulgation of those social virtues which tend to the elevation and advancement of fellowmen.

The Governor's Shadow.

From The New York Telegram. A thin, poorly clad young woman, with traces of former beauty still remaining on her face, stood at the ladies' entrance of the Hoffman house a few days ago, her eyes riveted on the the door through which the guests came and left the hotel. In her arms she held a little child as poorly clad as her-self, but as she made no effort to collect alms, and spoke to no one, I asked the clerk who she was. "Whenever you see her there," he replied, "you can bet that Governor Hill is in the house. Every time he comes from Athany she takes her stand at the door, and she has done so for almost a year without getting a chance to see the governor. She is looking for a pardon for her husband, who is serving a term of four years in Sing Sing prison for forging the mame of his em-ployer. The couple, with the little child you see in her arms, came from England about five years ago, and he succeeded in retting a place as book-keeper in a store in this city. He forged his en-ployer's name, was arrested, and about two years ago was sent to prison. She has been supporting herself ever since, but I guess not very well. SI wants to ask the governor to pardon her husban and if he ever sees her I guess he will do it.

J. W.BYRAM, Observer. Prohibition and Wine.

From The New York Telegram There are 400,000 acres of land planted to vineyards in this country, of which 300,000 are now in bearing. This is an increase of 220,000 acres in ten years, with an increase of over $10,000,000 a year in the capital invested. California has half the acreage of bearing vines, and will produce more than half of the 30,000,000 or 40,000,000 gallons of wine that this country will produce this year. In fact, the new census shows an increase of over 100 per cent in the making of wine in this country during the last decade of years-a decade of great prohibition activity.

Entertainments -- Nothing But the Best A great many people in Atlanta are impressed with the idea that we do not run book accounts, that we are strictly cash. This is a mistake, we run thirty day accounts, and are proud to say that we number amongst our patrons over 600 of the est families in Atlanta. On last Saturday, Octo-ber 25th, we furnished food for nearly 3,000 peo-ple, just think of it, 3,000 people. Aside from supplying Barnum's entire circus of 765 people, feeding them six meals, Saturday and Sunday, we supplied from our stock over 306 families in At-lanta. All day long a steady trade, transient patronage also selected such things as best suited their taste; reckoning six people to the average family, and we have 1,800, add at least 200 tran-sient customers and the 785 Barnum's circus attaches, and we have a grand total of 2,765, nearly 3,000 people, who dined upon the best in the land.
This is a grand recoad, and we thank the people of Atlant for their generous patronage. We run thirty day accounts and would be glad to have as many more customers as we now have: We furmany more customers as we now have: We furnish only the best, select groceries; nothing leaves our store that is not first inspected and approved. During this month new goods will be constantly arriving, and we invite your inspection. We have furnished, also, during the past two weeks all the fancy delicacies that adorned the reception tables of five recheche entertainments. Nothing but the very best would suit their respective fastidious taste, and we are glad to say that we drimly believe that our house is the only one in Atlanta that could have furnished the quality desired.

SAYS ITS UNTRUE.

PRESIDENT WILLIAMSON TALKS OF THE LATEST RUMOR

About the Sale of the Chattanooga, Rome and Columbus Railroad to the Cen-tral-What He Says.

Colonel J. D. Williamson says it isn't so He was in the city yesterday, and when shown the telegram in The Constitution about the Chattaneoga, Rome and Columbus and the Central, he laughed and said:

"There is nothing, in my opinion, more unplicable they must always a property of the property of reliable than rumors about railroad combinations, sales, and so forth. It has been rumored frequently—probably dozens of times within the past twelve months—that the Chattanooga, Rome and Columbus was sold or was about to be sold to somebody.

"In regard to the special rumor to which you call my attention I cannot add anything stronger than what General Alexander has already said on this subject. "The Chattanooga, Rome and Columbus rail-road has not been sold to the Central Railroad and Banking Company."

"How do you account for the rumor?" "I suppose it may have grown out of the fact that on yesterday the Savannah, Griffin and North Alabama, the southern connection of the Chattanooga, Rome and Columbus, was sold at receiver's sale, and that doubtless some one in the interest of the Central bought it. The rumor may also have originated from the fact that there has been, recently, considerable trading among themselves on the part of the stockholders of the Rome and Carrollton Construction Company which built the Chattanooga, Rome and Columbus. Some of these stockholders have bought the holdings of others, and some men who have been identified with the Chatta-nooga, Rome and Columbus having thus parted with their stock and other securities, this may have given rise to the rumors of sale and "I have no doubt that the present organization of the Chattanooga, Rome and Columbus Railroad Company will remain in control of the property for a long time."

THE CELEBRATED FRENCH CAPSULES INSTRUCTION.

CRICHTON'S Shori-hand School

49 Whitehall St., Atlanta. If you want to learn shorthand, the first thing to be done is to select a school; one that has some standing; remembering always, that idle boasts are easily made, but teaching shorthand is an art, a science, a business.

Examine carefully into the claims of teachers and select one as carefully as you would a physician.

THE STOCK MARKET. The Day on the Floor of the New York Stock

Central Central debenture . .

Exchange.

NEW YORK, November 5.—The stock market today was reactionary in its nature and with increased transactions along the line material losse were sustained in almost everything traded in, notwithstanding the fact that many stocks in early dealings reached the highest prices for the past week. London figures were materially higher this morning as compared with our final prices of Monday, and this market opened with a boom, everything being from one-fourth to seven-eighth per cent higher. The bears soon got to work in the Sugar Refineries, and selling -was very heavy great feverishness attending dealings. Feeble rallies took place in stock from time to time, but late in the day its price touched 54_2\, a loss of 6_2_2\, per cent, while at the close it had reached only 55, a net loss for the day of 5% per cent. Selling was eager and heavy, stop orders being uncovered at every one eighth town. The general list was favored by the strength of the London market and buying for London account in early trading. The railway situation was of material influence in creating improved feeling on the other side of the ocean, sudden and pronounced weakness was developed in Vanderbilts and the list could not withstand such an influence. Selling was well guarded and opinions differ tonight as to whether it was long or short stock which was supplied in such quantities, but the effect was the same in either case, and a decline of 3 per cent in New York Central had the effect of demoralizing to a certain extent.

Lake Shore followed the leader closely, but the Vanderbilts were comparatively well held and remained quiet. All leading shares, however, felt the depression and yielded more or less, all showing material lesses at close to the lowest point. The market failed to show any recuperative power, and although some slight improvement was seen in the last hour, the close was heavy at or near the lowest price of the day. The heaviest trading in stocks of the regular list was in St. Paul Union Pacific and Louisville and Nashville, which furnished 32,800, 39,640 and 23,045 shares respectively to a grand total of 244,000, though reading, which is only half the stock cantributed, 30,530. Sugar scored sales of 145,253 shares out of a total of unlisted of 154,256. Final changes are with few unimportant excep-tions, among which Canada Pacific, with rise of 3 per cent, is most conspicuous, material losse-and New York Central is down 2½, Lake Shore, 2; Jersey Central, 1¾; Canada Southern, 1¼; Lackawanna and New England, each, 134; Chicac Gas, Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific, each, 1/6. and others fractional amounts.

Exchange quiet and steady at 481@4851/2. Money easy at 5@7, closing offered at 6. Sub-treasury balances: Coin $145,491,000; currency $4,905,000.

NEW YORK, November 5, 3 p. in.-London rices were higher this morning, due probably to ome extent to the result of the election here as vell as to the better feeling in that quarter. The wen as to the better feeting in that quarter. The advance there caused considerable strength here during the morning hours, but the strength did not last long, and under very heavy selling of the Vanderbilt stocks the market commenced to drag, and sold in most instances considerably below Saturday's prices.

he feature was the heavy selling of Vander s, and the street is finding considerable difficulty in tracing this selling to headquarters. It must be long stock, for the bears would never venture to sell so heavily of stocks which are so closely held; and coming in blocks as the sales did some heavy inside interest, or at least investment interest. The weakness in such stocks as the New York Central, Lake Shore and Illinois Central is certain to further demoralize London, and added to this the marked weakness of Pennsylvania Central stock in the Philadelphia market, and it would look as though something was wrong the trunk line cycles. some heavy inside interest, or at least investment cape further decline in values abroad, which is bound to be reflected here.

Sugar trust continued weak, declining another five points for the day and gives no evidence of any supporting orders. Under the circumstances the immediate outlook is not a brilliant one, and bulls will have to lie on their oars for some time

Hubbard, Price & Co.'s Circular. Hubbard, Price & Co.'s Circular.

P NEW YORK, November 5—[Special]—An effort made to check the declining tendency in Liverpool yesterday resulted, so our cables advise, in the acquisition of about 20,000 bales of futures by a prominent concern at an advance of 2-64d above Monday's prices. Low temperature throughout the south yesterday morning and the holiday in New York also assisted the improvement. This morning, however, the support of yesterday morning, however, the support of yesterday seemed to be withdrawn in Liverpool, and the opening was weak at 3 points decline from yesteropening was weak at 3 points decline from yester-day and the close weak and irregular at a set_loss, compared with Monday, of about 4-64d. Here the market opened at a loss of about 4 points, recovered it in part and again declined on cables reporting the decline in Liverpool and an unsatisfactory coudition of trade in Manchester in consequence of the cancellation of many East Indian orders. A recovery of about 2 points was made at the close upon the covering of short interest and the lighter receipts, which most southern markets predict in consequence of the comparatively low range of prices prevailing. The bureau report and its possibilities are also becoming the subject of some discussion, and in response to a telegraphic inquiry made by us, Statistician Dodge wires us from Washington that the report, to be issued on the 10th instant, will give the indicated yield per acre on the 1st of November. Whether this will justify the extreme big crop views which are having such a depressing effect upon prices remains to be seen. big crop views which are having such a effect upon prices remains to be seen.

At the decline the market was rather steady on liberal covering by shorts. Receipts continue large and crop accounts all favorable, so we see nothing in the position likely to prevent a further decline.

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Features of the Speculative Movement in Grain and Provisions. CHICAGO, November 5-Wheat-Good specula-tive trading, but mostly on local account. The feeling was decidedly weaker, influenced some by fine weather, but rather more by free speculative offerings by a prominent local trader than any-thing else. An increase of wheat and flour on passage and larger Russian shipments helped to create weakness. The opening was 3/62/4c lower than the closing figures on Monday. January sold off 3/6c more, became firmer, advancing 1/4c, then eased off, prices declining 5/2c, or to inside figures and closed about 1/2/26/14/2c lower than Monday.

Corn-Moderate trading within a lower range, the feeling prevailing being easier. Offerings were liberal, the first trades being 1/2c under the closing prices of Monday, after which the market sold off 1/4c, railled some, eased off 1/4c and closed with a loss of 11/4/21/4. A prominent local trader sold freely, which had a depressing effect on the market, as also fine weather and increased offerings of new corn. passage and larger Russian shipments helped to market, as also fine weather and increased offerings of new corn.

Outs were fairly active, but weaker and lower. The weakness was due to larger receipts, the decline in wheat and corn and free offerings by several traders, who forced prices for May down $\frac{3}{2}$.

After they ceased selling a reaction of $\frac{1}{2}$$ of oflowed, but again weakened $\frac{3}{2}$$. The near futures were neglected, and sold near May prices.

Mess pork—Business comparatively small and changes in prices slight. The opening sales were made at 5c decline, but this was soon recovered. Later prices settled back $2\frac{1}{2}$$ of 5c, and the market closed quiet at inside figures.

Lard—A quiet and rather dull feeling prevailed, and trading was limited. Prices ruled about $2\frac{1}{2}$$ of 5c lower, and the market closed quiet at inside figures.

CHICAGO, November 5.—3:15 p. m.—The intervening holiday had a tendency to allow the bulls to think over the situation. The result is that values have materially declined since Monday. Grain-markets all opened weak, especially wheat, and liquidation has been in progress. December wheat at the close shows 2 cents decline from Monday. The principal cause is the liberal receipts, the increase in the English visible, and the supposed increase east of the Rockies of the stocks of wheat. The crowd being caught heavily able to maintain the supremacy, and the close finds the market quite weak and a cent lower. Oats show a slight decline, but, on the whole are still in good shape, as far as the high point is Provisions dull and somewhat lower. LAMSON BROS. & Co.

The Petroleum Market. NEW YORK, November 5—The petroleum market was very dull, and prices in different options wide apart. December option was most traded in, but no trades were made in it until after I o'clock. After the first sales a decline of 11/4c was caused RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

THE WAR AGAINST THE SCALPERS STILL ON.

Railroad Personals and Topics of General Interest Concerning Railroad Matters in Every Section.

The local passenger and ticket agents with one accord pronounce business on a boom, which is not over a week old at the furthest. Those agents representing lines running west or with western connections may be particu-larly noted by the large and luminous smiles which adorn their countenances, as in this direction are the greatest number of peo-ple traveling. The close of the Piedmont exple traveling. The close of the Piedmont exposition gave an added impetus to the brisk demand, as hundreds who bought round-trip tickets to Atlanta simply sold them to the brokers and bought "westward-ho" tickets. Every year occurs this same boom, caused by the emigration to new homes in the boundless and fertile western region. The roads running south are also getting a good share of traffic, they transporting thousands of people from the north who seek to escape the severities of a changeable semi-Arctic climate.

It is very evident that Mr. George M. Pullan looks intent'y and earnestly at the aveling public for the salaries of the colored orders of his chair cars, he having just made porters of his charters, he having just made another cut in-their already meager wages. The rate of $1.50 a day, which they have been receiving for the post twelve years, has been lowered to $1. This new reduction first went into effect last Saturday on the Chicago, Mil-waukee and St. Paul, and is thus far confined to employes of that road.

There is a great scarcity of freight cars in eastern Washington and northern Idaho, rendering it impossible to move the grain, and it is likely that the big crops in that region will have to remain in warehouses several months before they can be hauled away. Many of the capitalists are building large elevators in consequence.

Another rumor is started in Chicago! to the Another rumer is started in Chicago to the effect that J. Pierpont Morgan's present visit to the west means the speedy consummation of another Vanderbilt deal, more startling in its nature than the much talked of Union Pacific-Northwestern deal, being none other than the making of a traffic agreement between the Northwestern and the Milwaukee and St. Paul Northwestern and the Milwaukee and St. Paul systems.

The attitude lately assumed by the Union Pacific indicates that something of the sort will be done. The Northwestern alone could give the Union Pacific all the west-bound traffic it needs, but the Milwaukee and St. Paul added, which connects with the Union Pacific and Kansas City and Omaha and Kansas City, the latter would have all the eastern feeders it needs and can defy all other connects all the Vanderbilt lines east from Chicago with the Milwaukee and St. Paul and Chicago and Northwestern systems, and by the use of this connecting link the Vanderbilt lines east and west of Chicago will be able to transact their through traffic without going through Chicago and paying heavy terminal and transfer charges. The consummation of the deal outlined in the foregoing will give the Vanderbilts the absolute control of a gigantic railway system from New York to Ogden, Utah, and all they would need will be the control of the Central Pacific branch of the Southern Pacific to give them independent lines through from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast with terminals both at San Francisco and Portland, Orc., the Oregon Short Line of the Union Pacific all leady furnishing an outlet to the latter point.

The notice of the Union Pacific to all conme holder of the Chion Frache to all consecting lines that it would refuse to pro rate with them on the old basis has beed hauled in mid another issued to the effect that the refusal upilied only to the Rock Island, the Burlingson and the St. Paul at Omaha. The Chicago lines are having a barrel of fun at the expense the University Pacific as the retire appears to he Union Pacific, as the notice amounts to ing in any event. Any line can compel inion Pacific to pro rate on the same at gives the Northwestern. But the bit is still on, and all the Chicago lines, of the Northwestern and the Chicago land and Kansas City, are diverting all ble freight to Union Pacific competitors.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers we selected Atlanta, Ga., for the location of next international meeting. The time, 15, 1892, will be decided upon.

survey is now being made for a line of g projected from Bridgeport, Ala., down to Tennessee river to cross the North Alama and Dalton railway not far from Stovenme. It will run down Sand mountain to insect with the Birmingham Mineral.

Next Wednesday the interstate commerce Next Wednesday the interstate commerce minission will be in session at Chattanooga, investigate charges of freight rate discrimitions against that city. It is assured that the commission William M. Morrison, W. Bragg and W. S. HON. T. M. NORWOOD

TALKS ABOUT NATIONAL POLITICS-MORAL OF THE ELECTION.

The Apostles of Hate Remanded to the Rear-The Alliance Doing Good Missionary Work Out West.

Hon. Thomas M. Norwood came in from Savannah on the 5:40 o'clock train yesterday evening, and was among his friends at the Kimball house last night.

He looked a little travel-worn, but his conversation showed the usual spirit and incisiveess. In regard to the senatorial race he was not disposed to express himself, but on national politice he talked freely and with considerable enthusiasm.

"The news is indeed cheering," said he. "The revulsion is so great that it has unusual significance. The people will not en-dorse the McKinley tariff bill or the revolutionary tactics of the republicans in the house. The returns show something more than a democratic victory. Even a part of the republican party has revolted against the policy of its leaders.

'A point which should be emphasized is that the country has rebuked the attitude of republican leaders toward the south. Those leaders, Reed, McKinley, Ingalls and men of their views, conscientiously believe-if the word conscience may be applied to the republican party—that the south has no rights which they are bound to respect. They regard us as outlaws and rebels, they say we tried to destroy the government once, and they think we have no right to a voice in its control now. In this state of mind they think it no wrong to anseat southern members as they have done during the past session.

"I rejoice especially at the defeat of Senator Ingalls. He is the apostle of hate, and has been since he came to the senate, about 1872. "He has been defeated by the people" ticket, which is understood to be an alliance movement. For years it has been impossible to reach the people of Kansas If a man went before them and discussed the tariff, presenting the arguments in support of the democratic position, it was only necessary for a republican to appeal to their prejudices by telling them to look at Cleveland's appintments and see that he had appointed a rebel general minister to Russia, another rebel minister to Mexico, and had put a third rebel on the supreme bench to judge of their rights and liberties. Upon this those people became as deaf as cattle to any argument.

"Ingalls and men like him have cultivated thoseprejudices, and for years the people of Kansas were out of reach of the democrats. The alliance has brought the people together upon a plane where they will listen to reason. Its work has had the effect of burying prejudice, and people have become tired of the old appeals to passion, and they have set their faces against the men whose work is on that line. I think there is great hope of bringing the sections of the country together through the work of the alliance. It is bringing them to understand that, before a reconciliation can take place, the ministers of hate must be retired. The returns show that the people have determined to do this, and with other men coming into congress from the north without the old prejudices against the south, the prospect for friendly relations between the sections is most encouraging.

"If the alliance had done nothing else it would have done much, and in this it has great reward."

DON'T GIVE UP

The use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. One bottle may not cure "right off" a complaint of years; persist until a cure is effected. As a general rule, improvement follows shortly after beginning the use of this medicine. With many people, the effect is immediately noticeable; but some constitutions are less susceptible 'to medicinal influences than others, and the curative process may, theresusceptible to medicinal influences than others, and the curative process may, therefore, in such cases, be less prompt. Perseverance in using this remedy is sure of its reward at last. Sooner or later, the most subboar blood diseases yield to. stubborn blood diseases yield to

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For several years, in the spring months, I used to be troubled with a drowsy, tired feeling, and a dull pain in the small of my feeling, and a dull pain in the small of my back, so bad, at times, as to prevent my being able to walk, the least sudden motion causing me severe distress. Frequently, boils and rashes would break out on various parts of the body. By the advice of friends and my family physician, I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla and continued it till the poison in my eblood was thoroughly eradicated."—L. W. English, Montgomery City, Mo. "My system was all run down; my skin rough and of yellowish hue. I tried various remedies, and while some of them gave me temporary relief, none of them did any permanent good. At last I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, continuing it exclusively for a considerable time, and am pleased to say that it completely

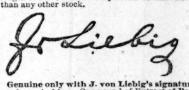

Cured Me.

I presume my liver was very much out of order, and the blood impure in consequence. I feel that I cannot too highly recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla to any one afflicted as I was."—Mrs. N. A. Smith, Glover, V. "For years I suffered from scrofula and blood diseases. The doctors' prescriptions and several so-called blood-purifiers being of no avail, I was at last advised by a friend to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and now feel like a new man, being fully restored to health."—C. N. Frink, Decorah, Iowa.

Last week's business was a hummer. Our new store was filled with well-pleased clothing buyers who appreciate high class clothing at moderate prices. Every suit that went out brings fresh ad ditions to our long list of customers. Here and there attractive sellers in suits and overcoats make big in roads in our stock. We fill up the gap with fresh shipments for this week. Overcoats, light and heavy weights; men's boy's and children's. It will pay you to see them.

DECISIONS THE MARCH TERM, 1890, SUPREME

Woe betide the Clothier who falls asleep in these days when it is even dangerous to doze. The demand for Stylish Suits is so general and good taste so alert that Rip Van Winkle Clothiers find it hard work to sell them. by-gone patterns. For wide-awake, up-to-the-minute style-glance over our stock of Overcoats and Suits for Men and

Each day marks an upward step here. A new, quick force working through musty theories of trade; lifting lifting, elevating and dignifying the high standard of correct commercial laws. The better, broader, brighter ide inspire trust, and that creates business.

We are the pioneer champions of "One Price Marked! Plain Figures," and the system first became popular Atlanta through us. That is only one of the methowhich have given this store its present position. Other unique rules are gathering about us daily triumphs of training about us daily triumphs of training about the state of the that raise our doings above the common.
